Life — so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Lone — like the Autumn Sun
Should be dying, but its only just begun.
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets in the universe Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go.
And take us up, always up.
We May Never Pass This Way Again
Dreams — so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace — like the silent dove
Should be flyin', but its only just begun

Like Columbus in the older days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open sea Cast away our fears and all the
years will come and go
And take us up — always up
We May Never Pass This Way Again
So I wanna laugh while the laughin is easy
I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile

I may never pass this way
again

That's why I want it with you
'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end.

I May never pass this way again

That's why I want it with you.

Like Columbus in
the olden days,

We must gather
all our courage,

Sail our ships out
on the open sea,

Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go.

New Dorm

My time at Lasell is over
But the memories always will stay
I'll never forget the people I met
As I go along my way.

The first day I met my new roommate
Is something I'll always remember
It's hard to believe that best pal of mine
Is the stranger I met last September.

Those horrible mixers in Winslow
How could I forget those dances?
Then - there were times when it wasn't too bad
Those love-at-first-sight romances.

The daily trips to Star Market
The bags of Doritos we ate
Spending laundry money on pizza man
Gee, I wonder how I gained weight?!

The open-bar parties at Babson
and Wednesday nights at the pub
The parties on 3rd floor New Dorm
With three kegs of beer in the tub.

Those crazy, mixed up love affairs
"I'll never speak to him again!"
We stuck together for moral support and vowed that we hated all men!

The endless games of backgammon
With the soaps and a can of Tab
We never found time to study
But plenty of time to gab.

In April the weather got warmer with bright and sunny days
My average went down in accounting
As we lazily soaked up the rays.

Through all of the tears and laughter
Through all of the good times and bad
I'll never forget the New Dorm gang
And the crazy times that we had.

Best of luck to all

PERSONAL MESSAGES

Seniors:

Your friendship has meant more to me than you will ever know. God bless you, Dee.

Jane Christine:

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood, And sorry I could not travel both, And be one traveler, long I stood. I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference.

Love, Robert Frost,
Mom and Dad

Marilyn:

Right-on-Ma!! The business world can hardly wait. We're proud of you.

Love, Mom and Dad

Congratulations — dearest Lulu —
Always be yourself —

Love Mom and Dad

Karen:

My very special friend. I wish you everything you wish for yourself. Thank you for so much.

Love, Annie 'O'

Jill:

We are all very proud of you and your accomplishments. We wish you success, good health and much happiness always!

Love Mom, Dad and the Family

Stephanie:

My you always stay the sweet and lovely lady that you are in every way.

Love Mom and Dad

Subie:

With all our love, now and always.

Mom and Dad

Terri:

May the flowers keep blooming and sun keep shining along life's way. You've come a long way, but a great distance remains.

From all who love you

Nina:

Congratulations to a beautiful person. May you continue to achieve your goals.

Love Mom and Dad

"Debby Doll":

We are proud of what you've done, And know it has not all been fun, Now the future is in your hands, Used wisely, is yours to command

All our love,
Mom, Dad and the kids.

Deb and Virgy:

What are we going to do without you?

Love, Meg, Lyn, Lori
and Margie

Joanne:

For today, for tomorrow, for always — May gentle hours, happy days and fruitful years belong to you as you pursue life's dreams.

Our Love,
Mother and Dad

Monica:

I'll see you in the stars wherever you may be —

Love, Cheryl

Karen:

It's just a short time from sunrise to sunset. Fill the days of your life with the most wonderful things,

Martha:

I wish you and Keith the best of luck and happiness in whatever the future may bring. And remember to live each day for what it offers, and as night falls be able to look back on the day and smile and say I enjoyed that day, life and living, for if you can't, don't bother to go on for it's not worth it. I'll love and remember you both always.

Love Lori

P.S. I'll be waiting for my invitations!

Sue:

We are so proud of you, love and best wishes for your next step in your pursuit of life.

O friendship! of all things the most rare, and therefore most rare, because most excellent; whose comforts in misery are always sweet, whose counsels in prosperity are ever fortunate.

There is art of which man should be mastered, — the art of reflection.

Graduation

As you walk in the procession
Hold your head way up high.
Be as proud as a peacock,
Feel as tall as the sky.

Two years of worries and anxieties,
Two years of tears and hope,
Two years of studies and testing,
No matter what with, you could cope.

Today is your day of payment,
Today is your day to laugh,
Gather all of your rewards together,
Wear them all as a shiny new scarf.

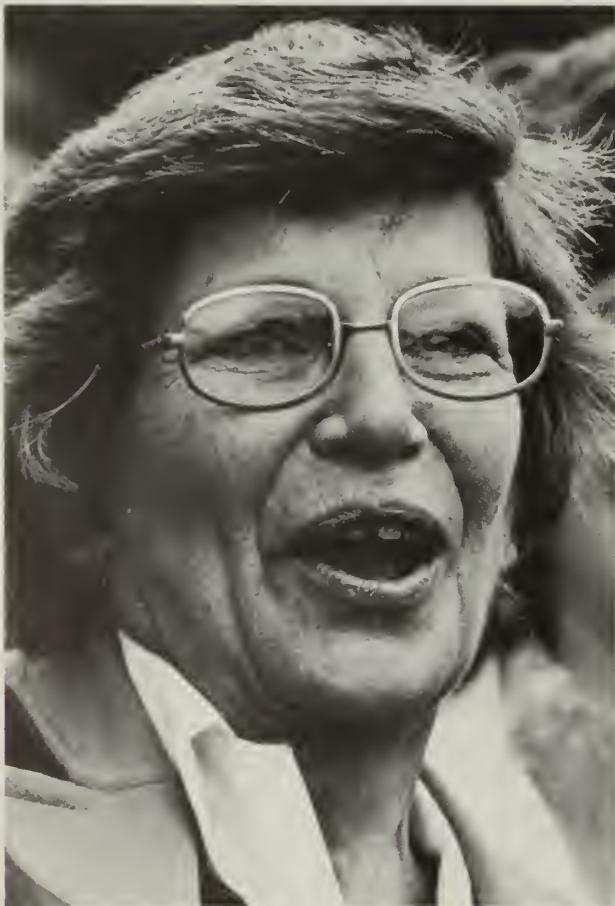

Now, try to be a good nurse
With feelings of compassion and love,
Tend you then to the needs of others,
Be thou an angel sent from above.

Will the real
Mrs. Long please
step forward???

Acknowledgement

A "special thank you" to the Yearbook Staff for their hard work, Ginny and Betsy, without the both of you we'd never have made it.
Dee Pifer, for being there to pull us through.
Arlene, for keeping everything in order.
Bob Case, for being a great photographer.
Jim Pollock, for helping with the dedication.
Joy Rice, for her time in getting pictures for us.
Jean O'Neil, for helping — "so much" when we needed it.
Allison, who cared and was concerned.
Tricia, for doing last minute artwork for us.
Themla, for taking pictures for us.
And, Hillary, my dear friend for being there when I needed someone who would listen.

Love, Peace and Happiness to everyone of you.
Debby.
